Richmond, VA - Washington DC Access – HeloAir pilots also have access to the Maryland Three Airports (MD3) which are situated within the DCA Flight Restricted Zone. If passengers need relatively close access to Washington DC but do not necessarily need access to Reagan National Airport, this provides another, less expensive option. Washington Executive/Hyde Field (W32) and Potomac Airfield (KVX), Maryland are a short ten minute drive to the new MGM Grand Casino and National Harbor and Alexandria is just across the George Washington Bridge. College Park Airport sits in the northeastern quadrant of the Flight Restricted Zone with easy access to the University of Maryland, FedEx Stadium and also Silver Springs.
