HeloAir providing Aerial Filming Services for UCI Road World Championships

HeloAir is the exclusive provider all of the aerial filming services for the UCI road world championship bike race in Richmond Virginia for nine days in September 2015. President Whit Baldwin "We are beyond excited to be able to cover an event of this scope and magnitude. It is a tremendous event for not only the Richmond area but the Commonwealth of Virginia and the country as a whole." HeloAir is fortunate to have veteran aerial photographer Richard MacDonald as its aerial photography partner.

Worlds is truly one of the great global sporting events. It is covered by more than 500 media outlets from around the world and is broadcast live to a global audience of more than 300 million people.

About HeloAir: HeloAir provides management and charter services, NASCAR shuttles, performs fire suppression, aerial filming, utility work and operates from bases throughout the United States. HeloAir is committed to safety and customer service. Founded in 1993 and headquartered in Richmond, Virginia with offices in Metropolitan DC, HeloAir is the largest helicopter provider in the Mid-Atlantic region.
