Helicopter Dries Washington Redskins' Practice Fields

August 2, 2013 (Richmond, VA)

We received a call from the Washington Redskins senior VP of operations Lou Rosenberg at 8:20 am this morning requesting a helicopter to dry the Redskins practice facility. Our Vice President Rob Roberts was airborne with one of our 407's and was able to dry the fields for 35 minutes before the fans were let in at 9:30 Please see the story here:
